I think that 55 Rs is a limit low enough for govt to take the trouble of undertaking to keep forever as a separate fund for any particular seva prescribed by the donor. In cases where they give smaller sums, the money would merge in the temple property & the donor's name will not be specially associated with any seva. I think the order may be issued as suggested by me. The draft is altered

Proceedings of the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, Muzrai, dated 4th April 1911.

READ—

The following letter No. 317, dated the 13th January 1911, from the Deputy Commissioner, Mysore District:—

"In submitting herewith petition registered No 257, dated 13th December 1910, received from Nanjundiah, Taluk Maistry, D. P. W. Office, Mandya, praying that the sum of Rs. 10 may be deposited in the Government Savings Bank and the annual interest accruing therefrom may be utilised for Abhishekam and Dadhyodana Nivedana in the Sri Srikanteswaraswami temple at Nanjangud, I have the honor to state that small sums are tendered by devotees as Puduvat for the performance of certain stipulated services. The interest accruing on such sums being small, I am afraid that the Puduvat accounts will swell up, cause confusion and give room for complaints. It is therefore highly desirable that some restriction should be placed regarding the acceptance of Puduvat Funds. I would therefore propose that a general order be issued not to accept sums as Puduvat whose annual interest is below one rupee.

2. Report No. 153—311, dated 17th December 1910, received from the Amildar. Nanjangud Taluk, representing the inconvenience caused by accepting small amounts, is herewith submitted for reference."

No. 2544-52—MUZ. F. 360-10-2, DATED BANGALORE, 4TH APRIL 1911.

ORDER THEREON.—Government agree that some limit should be prescribed below which the Muzrai Department need not receive donations for investment on condition of using the accruing interest for special services to be performed in the name of the donor. They are pleased to direct that less than 100 (one hundred) rupees should not be received in this manner. In cases of smaller sums, the parties are welcome to invest the money in their own names in the Savings Bank or elsewhere and get any particular service that they choose performed in the temples from time to time.

2. This limit would of course, not apply to gifts of money or other articles made unconditionally to any temple or other Muzrai Institution.
